

43,600,000 PEACHES PASS THROUGH CITY DAILY FOR NORTH

Figures Will Be Largely Increased When Georgia Crop Moves.

Forty-three million six hundred thousand and Georgia peaches are passing through Washington each morning.

To handle this enormous cargo of fruit it takes from six to ten Southern railway express freight trains, hauling on the average of twenty-one refrigerator cars each.

In order to get the fruit to New York and other Northern markets, where most of it is sent before it begins to spoil, a schedule of between sixty and seventy miles an hour must be maintained. This speed is even greater than that of passenger trains operated in the South.

Figures obtained from a reliable source show that there are on an average of 300 crates of peaches to every car, and thirty-six baskets to a crate. There are about thirty peaches to a basket, or about 324,000 to a car. There is an average of 150 cars a day through Washington, making an average of 43,600,000 peaches daily for the Northern markets.

But these numbers will be surpassed in July when the celebrated Elberta peach crop of southwest Georgia begins to move. It will take fifteen to twenty fast freight trains daily, pulling an average of twenty-five refrigerator cars, to haul the great cargo. Then fully 100,000,000 peaches will pass through Washington daily.

Fast express freights will be kept busy hauling the Georgia crop North until about the second week in August, when the season comes gradually to an end.

In the Northern markets the Georgia peach has the right-of-way over all others. Its flavor has made it the favorite, and the fruit growers of the State reap a rich harvest each year of their orchards.

The cargo daily shipped through Washington ranges in value from $300,000 to $4,500,000.

The fast freights reach the Capital from 1 until 6 o'clock in the morning. A large number of shifting engines are required to shift the cars over from the Southern railway tracks to the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio tracks for the journey from here to New York.

On the local market the Georgia peach brings 40 to 50 cents a basket. The Elberta peaches in July will bring between 30 and 35 cents per basket.

Most of the crop in Georgia is bought early by big New York dealers, as high as $100,000 being paid for the crop of some of the great orchards through the southwestern part of the State.

FIND SABENS GUILTY OF SLAYING WOMAN

Jury Returns First Degree Verdict Against Soldier from Fort Myer.

After the jury was out four hours, William H. Sabens, a soldier stationed at Fort Myer, Va., who was charged with shooting Ada Haynes, on August 12 last, at 1322 D street northwest, was found guilty of murder in the first degree in Criminal Court, No. 1, yesterday, and has been remanded by Justice Anderson for sentence.

A plea of the insanity was made by attorneys for the defense, R. C. L. Mounsey and T. M. Wampler. United States Attorney Wilson followed S. McC. Hawken in closing for the Government. The verdict of the jury was returned at 9 o'clock.

The Sabens case is the first in which a first-degree verdict has been asked since the United States Supreme Court ruled on the question of a jury in the District of Columbia being able to qualify a first degree verdict.

Pure Food Decision On Damaged Grains

Grains which are damaged or are of inferior quality, treated and bleached with sulphur fumes and given added weight with moisture so that they resemble higher grade grains, are adulterated and cannot be manufactured or sold in the District of Columbia or the Territories or transported and sold in interstate commerce.

A ruling to this effect has just been issued by the pure food inspection board of the Bureau of Chemistry.

No ruling on grains of good quality treated with sulphur fumes to remove weather or ground stains will be given until the effect of sulphur dioxide on health is determined.

Trainmen and Road In Hopeless Deadlock

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—Negotiations have been virtually ended between the Federated Board of Trainmen and the Pennsylvania railroad and the central committee in considering the calling of a strike at once.

Today's conference between Manager Long of the Pennsylvania railroad, and the Federated board ended in a deadlock. The board then went into session. The board announced later that no agreement seemed possible, and that the question of a strike would be put up to the general committee.

The Federated board then went to the Parkway building, where the general committee, of which the Pennsylvania railroad officials had been explained. There may be a decision today, it is said.

ROOSEVELT TAKES FAMILY ON PICNIC

Colonel Bars Politics for Outing With Wife and Children.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 29.—Progressive party conferences today were tabooed at Sagamore Hill and war bulletins from Baltimore fell on deaf ears and unseeing eyes. The Roosevelts went on a picnic. The Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt went ahead on horseback, and the rest of the family followed in an automobile.

The Colonel had nothing to say about politics. He said that the doings at Baltimore so far called for no comment, and no progressive leaders were scheduled for conference.

English Suffragettes On Rampage Again

LONDON, June 29.—A general campaign of destruction in the postoffices throughout the country was inaugurated today by the suffragettes.

They smashed the windows of the central postoffice at Manchester, and in the same city shattered those of the Reform Club. Some of the London branch offices and also those at Hitchin and Letchworth were similarly raided. A number of women were arrested, and at the police station announced that their action today was the beginning of a plan to smash the windows of every postoffice in England.

The postoffices at Edinburgh, Aberdeen, Derby, Leicester, London, and Southend were among the victims of suffragette window smashing in the course of the day.

At Edinburgh a woman was subjected to another assault last evening, while he was attending a reception given by Lady Glenconner. A woman whose identity has not been divulged, caught him by the lapels of his coat and shook him vigorously, until the premier was breathless. Then two men among the guests present caught Mr. Asquith's assailant and hurled her down the stairs.

The struggle was so violent that a sleeve was torn out of the suffragette's dress, her comba fell out of her hair, her gold watch was broken, and she lost her diamond brooch.

Suit Against Morse For Million Dollars

NEW YORK, June 29.—A million-dollar suit against Charles W. Morse, the former "ice king," whom President Taft pardoned from serving out his term in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, was begun here by the New York Assets and Realization Company, which alleges that Morse is a debtor to at least that amount.

United Copper stock figures in the complaint, which states that Morse purchased the stock from Arthur P. Heinz with agreement that he, Morse, was not to sell it for two years. This purchase, the plaintiff alleges, was made in January, 1907. In October came the panic, and according to the complaint, Morse violated his agreement by selling some of the stock, thereby lowering the market price of the company's common stock and causing a loss of more than $1,000,000 to Heinz. The latter has since assigned his claim to the company which is now suing Morse.

THAW'S RECORD AT MATTEAWAN BARED AT SANITY HEARING

Slayer Shown to Have Been Hot Tempered and Fond of Cards.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 29.—Harry Thaw's record at Matteawan was spread upon the record by his counsel, Clarence J. Shearn, at this afternoon's hearing on Thaw's application for release from the asylum. Mr. Shearn spent several hours reading from the Matteawan case book relating to his client's actions.

Part of the record was a comparison of Thaw's mental condition with that of the average normal person of his age. It relates further to Thaw's manner, conversation on his acquittal, and other subjects. One day's record, signed by Dr. Amos T. D. Baker reads:

"Thaw is very fond of cards, and gets angry when his partner makes a mis-play. Last night he called his partner a dunce and an ass. Today found him laughing over the funny page of one of the New York Sunday papers."

One portion of the record showed that on one occasion Thaw sat on the floor, refused to go to his room when requested, and had to be carried bodily, struggling and protesting. Another item was that Thaw struck a patient and knocked him down.

Mr. Shearn had not concluded the reading when adjournment was taken. "Thaw was inclined to be testy at the hearing in the forenoon in his answers to Jerome's questions, using the expressions 'humming tactics,' 'blackmailing stories,' and 'your cowardly insinuations.'"

Thaw emphatically denied irrational statements attributed to him. When his examination was over Mr. Shearn called Mr. Jerome to the stand.

"What is your official connection with this case?" Mr. Shearn asked. "Special deputy attorney general," was the reply.

Mr. Jerome was then questioned about certain papers alleged to be in his possession. He said he did not have them and invited Mr. Shearn to search his office. Mr. Shearn accepted the invitation, and dismissed the witness.

TECHNICAL TALKS BY WOMEN'S CLUBS

Federation Takes Up Social and Industrial Conditions During the Year.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—A vital part of the work of the Women's Clubs of America was taken up today when a conference of the industrial and social conditions department, of which Miss Helen Varick Boswell, of New York, is chairman, was called in the Sutter street pavilion.

Practically all of the entire day was given over to technical discussions. Each State reported upon its efforts to secure better social conditions during the last year. The federation favors the children's bureau bill, the bill to prohibit the use of white phosphorous in the manufacture of matches, the bill to create a national industrial commission, the employees' liability and workmen's compensation bill, and the bill to prohibit contract convict labor.

Uniform Railroad Accounts Ordered

Commencing July 1 every railroad in the United States will have to keep a uniform income and profit and loss statement, giving business in full, for the examination of the accounts division of the Interstate Commerce Commission. An order to this effect was issued by the commission today.

Under the law railroad accounts are open to inspection by the commission. The new ruling merely provides for a uniform system of statements that will facilitate the work of the division of railroad accounts.
